

The Stokes County Sheriff's Office Special Investigation Division, along with the assistance of the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Division, Winston Salem Police Department Joint Task Force, Surry County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Division, Pilot Mountain Police Department, Mount Airy Police Department, and the North Carolina Highway Patrol concluded a six-month long drug investigation. During this joint investigation it was learned that the main suspect, Tiffany Dawn Wood, who resides on Northwest Dr. in Winston Salem, was selling methamphetamine, heroin and fentanyl from her residence and other locations. Officer's conducted countless hours of surveillance, conducted traffic stops which led to arrests and seizures of illegal narcotics, recovered stolen firearms and located a wanted person who was apprehended by the US Marshals.

Several of the individuals arrested during this operation live in Stokes County but would go meet Ms. Wood either at her residence or other locations to purchase the narcotics. Then the individuals would bring the drugs back into Stokes County.

A traffic stop was conducted on Ms. Wood on Oak Summit Rd in Winston Salem. During the traffic stop Ms. Wood was found to be in possession of 574 grams of methamphetamine, 3.6 grams of fentanyl, a Ruger 9mm pistol, which was reported stolen from Rockingham County, along with $4200.00 in cash. The methamphetamine was also prepackaged in one-ounce bags and ready to be sold. "My detectives are working hard to get this poison before it enters our county. All of these agencies working together probably saved several lives and I am proud of the job they are doing," says Sheriff Joey Lemons. Sheriff Lemons goes on to say, "We are going to keep fighting for our citizens and families of Stokes County in hopes we can rid our county of these horrible drugs."
