Temple Police Department investigates a traffic accident, 2 injured

TEMPLE, TX (May 11, 2024) – The Temple Police Department is investigating a traffic accident that resulted in an aggravated assault leaving two individuals injured.

At around 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 11, officers were dispatched to the intersection of Westfield Blvd and W Adams for a traffic accident. Upon arrival, officers located the victim who stated she and her daughter had walked up to the vehicle that had hit them to discuss the accident, a woman got out of the vehicle and started assaulting both of them. A bystander went to assist the victims being assaulted, and the woman ran back to her vehicle, got in it, and struck the adult victim while fleeing the accident scene.

Both of the victims were transported for medical treatment and are stable. The suspect was located and taken into custody.

This case is under investigation. Anyone with information should contact the Temple Police Department at 254-298-5500 or the Bell County Crime Stoppers at 254-526-8477, where callers can report anonymously. Tips can also be submitted anonymously at bellcountycrimestoppers.com.
