City of Temple swears in City Councilmembers

Election results canvassed during Special-Called City Council Meeting

TEMPLE, TX (May 10, 2023) - The City of Temple swore in the newly elected City Councilmembers during a Special-Called City Council meeting Wednesday morning.

Zoe Grant, who won the District 2 race, Susan L. Long, who was re-elected in the District 3 race, and Mike Pilkington, who won the District 4 race, were all officially sworn in during the meeting. The City Councilmembers took the oath of office, pledging to uphold the duties of their positions and serve the citizens of Temple to the best of their abilities.

Mayor Tim Davis welcomed the Councilmembers and expressed his confidence in their ability to serve the City of Temple with distinction.

"I am excited to work with our new City Councilmembers and I am confident that they will bring fresh perspectives and ideas to the Council," said Mayor Davis. "We have a lot of important issues facing our city and I know that these new members will work diligently to serve the citizens of Temple."

The City of Temple congratulates the elected City Councilmembers and wishes them the best of luck as they begin their terms in office.
