TPD Investigates Aggravated Assault, Suspect Arrested

TEMPLE, TX (November 12, 2024) – The Temple Police Department has arrested a female in connection to an Aggravated Assault.

On November 12 at approximately 2:29 a.m., officers were dispatched to Baylor Scott and White hospital regarding two 19-year-old females with non-life-threatening stab wounds.

The females told officers they met up with a third female in the 3400 block of Camellia Drive. An argument, and fight ensued. The victims said the suspect, identified as 31-year-old Sophia Ramirez, pulled out a knife and stabbed the two victims.

Ramirez was located at the same address where the fight took place and was arrested and taken to the Bell County Jail for Aggravated Assault.

This case is under investigation. Anyone with information should call the Temple Police Department at 254-298-5500 or the Bell County Crime Stoppers at 254-526-8777, where callers can report anonymously.
