Temple Police Department investigates possible drowning

TEMPLE, TX (June 18, 2023) – The Temple Police Department is investigating a possible drowning.

At around 5:30 p.m., officers were dispatched to Temple Lake Park, located in the 14000 block of West Adams, in reference to a possible drowning.

Witnesses say a 31-year-old male jumped into the lake from a boat to save a child that had jumped into the water, the child came back up and is safe, however the male never resurfaced.

Temple Lake Park is closed as officials continue their search. Currently, the Temple Police Department, along with Temple Fire and Rescue, Morgan's Point Resort Dive Team, Army Corps of Engineers and Texas Parks and Wildlife, are assisting in the search.

This case is under investigation. Anyone with information should contact the Temple Police Department at 254-298-5500 or the Bell County Crime Stoppers at 254-526-8477, where callers can report anonymously. Tips can also be submitted anonymously at bellcountycrimestoppers.com.
