COUNCILMAN JACQUEZ JOHNSON

JANUARY ACTIVITIES REPORT

jacquez.johnson@thomasville-nc.gov

13 January 2024

Attended the 2024 MLK-SAC Oratorical Contest

I attended the MLK-SAC scholarship speech contest where 17 young scholars. Competed for $27,000 in scholarships and awards. We had 8 participants from Thomasville and 1 student from East Davidson compete. Also Coach Richard Flippin and myself received the 2024 Beloved Community Award for our efforts in helping fight for social action through social change.

14 January 2024

Attended the 2024 MLK Music Festival

I attended the MLK-SAC Music Festival hosted at Citadel of Faith, we got the opportunity to hear from poets, artists and musicians showcase their talents. It was an amazing experience to see so many talented artists from our community and surrounding communities.

15 January 2024

Attended the MLK Beloved Community Health Fair

I attended the MLK Community Health Fair where Novant partnered to provide vital testing and provide important health information about services provided and options available for our senior community. This event was hosted at Citadel of Faith Thomasville.

15 January 2024

Attended 38th MLK NATIONAL HOLIDAY SERVICE

I attended the 38th annual MLK-SAC national holiday service where we celebrated Dr. King and his legacy fighting for equality for all. Dr. Alicia Bailey of Winston Salem delivered the keynote address and it was hosted at First Missionary Baptist Church of Thomasville.
