THE BELLEVILLE AREA MUSEUM REOPENS WITH A LIST OF EVENTS

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP, Mich., September 1, 2021- The Belleville Area Museum (BAM), located at 405 Main Street in Belleville, is set to reopen on Tuesday, September 7 at noon. Open hours include Tuesdays - Saturdays from 12 - 6 PM. Hours are subject to change in December, due to the holidays.

"We're so excited to open our doors once again!" said BAM Director Katie Dallos. "We have missed you all and can't wait to see everyone back at the BAM and at our Fall Events.

Current displays included a Women's Suffrage & Vintage Department Store Room. It includes a 19th Amendment flag along with hats and costumes to try on.

"Stop by and keep your eyes open for the salad hat," said Director Dallos. "You'll know it when you see it."

Admission into the museum is free, but donations are welcome. All events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted. You can sign up for events by stopping by the BAM or by calling 734-697-1944.

The 2021 Fall events include:

- Booville Bonfire Kickoff - Tuesday, October 5 from 5-7 PM
- Harvest Fest - Saturday, Saturday, October 9 from 11 AM - 3 PM
- Soop Cemetery Tour - Saturday, October 16 from 3 - 5 PM; $15 per person
- Kids Halloween Party- Sunday, October 24 from 3 - 5 PM
- Downtown Trick or Treat- Friday, October 29 from 5 - 7 PM
- Museum Holiday Decorating - November 1-19 by appointment only
- Belle Noelle Bonfire - Tuesday, November 23 from 5 - 7 PM

- Santa Picture & Ornament Workshop – Saturday, December 11 & 18 from 12 – 4 PM; $2 per child.

“The BAM has been a meeting place for our community to come together for events while exploring the history of Belleville, Sumpter & Van Buren Township,” expressed Community Services Director Elizabeth Renaud. “We’re looking forward to continuing that tradition and opening our doors once again!”
