New Business:

Light It Up Blue Initiative: The committee discussed having an event for Down Syndrome Awareness instead of the Light It Up Blue initiative to vary initiatives that the committee sponsors. Rose Cairns motioned to approve a purchase not to exceed $200 to purchase socks to hand out at RiverWinds. The socks would be to wear on "Rock Your Socks" Day on March 21 to support Down Syndrome awareness. Jack Magee seconded the motion. The committee was all in favor.

Old Business:

Approval of January 2019 meeting minutes: Jack Magee motioned to approve the minutes. Colleen Cairns seconded the motion. The committee was all in favor.

Final plans for the March 10, 2019 Disability Information Forum were discussed as follows:

- Jack Magee will request to have the forum flyer hung in 32 local Heritage stores.
- Sandra Backensto's council- RFSPC #8 will e-mail the flyer to their contact list.
- Bob Jonas and Bob Driscoll will handle parking for the vendors on the day of the event.

- Food-The township purchased water bottles and will leave them in Greg Black's office at RW for the event. Lori Wadding will pick up the 300 pretzels at the Deptford Philly Soft Pretzel company. The township will issue a check for payment. These were previously approved committee purchases.
- Colleen Cairns will contact local school districts about the forum.
- Colleen Cairns will complete the paperwork for participants and vendors.
- Rose Cairns will contact the West Deptford scholarship pageant about volunteers. Lori Wadding will contact Mr. Morell at the high school about student athlete volunteers.

Correspondence: Colleen Cairns mentioned one e-mail in the committee database from a potential vendor for the forum. She will follow-up to the e-mail.
