

Chesapeake Bay Preservation Area (CBPA) Ordinance Exceptions

WHAT IS AN EXCEPTION?

An exception application is a request to encroach into the 100 foot wide vegetated buffer surrounding any resource protection area (RPA) feature required by the County's Chesapeake Bay Preservation Area (CBPA) Ordinance. There are two kinds of exceptions, including major or minor exceptions.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A MINOR AND MAJOR CBPA ORDINANCE EXCEPTION?

A minor exception request to allow an encroachment into the fifty foot landward portion of the RPA buffer includes the following situations:

- For lots and principal structures in existence prior to the adoption of the Chesapeake Bay Act in October 1989; or
- For lots and principal structures created between 1989 and 1992 when the Act was amended.

Major exceptions include the following RPA buffer encroachment requests:

- For lots or buildings built after 1992 or
- Encroachment into the seaward fifty feet of the RPA buffer (the fifty feet closest to the RPA feature).

Major exceptions requests require public hearings for both the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors.

WHAT KEY ISSUES MUST I ADDRESS WHEN REQUESTING AN EXCEPTION?

- Take all steps possible to minimize impacts to the Resource Protection Area Buffer, which includes reducing any clearing and building within the buffer to the minimum necessary.
- Mitigate any impacts to the buffer with the replacement landscaping in order to restore as much of the disturbed Resource Protection Area Buffer as possible.

WHAT IS THE PROCEDURE FOR APPLYING FOR AN EXCEPTION?

1. It is strongly recommended that applicants schedule a pre-application meeting with County staff to review their proposed project to make sure the applicant has all the available information to avoid incurring unnecessary costs. Contact the County's Environmental Planner at 365-6211 to schedule a meeting.

2. Submit a completed exception application together with either a major or minor Water Quality Impact Assessment, which is determined by the type of encroachment request.

WHAT IS THE FEE FOR AN EXCEPTION?

- $35 for a minor exception
- $1,200 for a major exception

WHAT IS THE REVIEW PROCESS FOR A MAJOR EXCEPTION APPLICATION?

1. The applicant submits a complete application and all required materials to the Central Permitting Department. Applications can be found on the County's website at www.iwus.net.
2. Staff distributes the application to all appropriate departments and agencies for review and comment. Staff collects any comments received and sends them to the applicant to address.
3. Once the applicant addresses any outstanding comments, staff advertises the application for public hearing with the Planning Commission. Planning Commission meetings are held at 6:00 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month in the Robert C. Claude Sr. Board Room at the County Courthouse Complex.
4. The applicant will be given at least one public notice sign to post on the property at least fourteen days prior to the Planning Commission public hearing. Additional signs may be required based on linear road frontage. These signs are provided by the County and may be picked up in Central Permitting.
5. The applicant or a representative is required to attend the Planning Commission meeting to present the application and answer any questions from Commission members.
6. The Planning Commission reviews the request and recommends either approval or denial of the exception. In rendering its decision, the Planning Commission shall not recommend in favor of the applicant unless it finds:
 - i. That the strict application of the ordinance would produce an undue hardship and will not confer upon the applicant any special privileges denied by this ordinance to other property owners in the Chesapeake Bay Preservation Area;

- ii. The exception request is not based on conditions or circumstances that are self-created or self-imposed, nor does the request arise from conditions or circumstances either permitted or non-conforming that are related to adjacent parcels;
 - iii. The exception request is the minimum necessary to afford relief;
 - iv. The exception request will be in harmony with the purpose and intent of this ordinance, not injurious to the neighborhood or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare, and is not of substantial detriment to water quality; and
 - v. Reasonable and appropriate conditions are imposed which will prevent the exception request from causing a degradation of water quality.
7. Following the Planning Commission's recommendation, the application will be placed on the Board of Supervisors' agenda for a public hearing. Board of Supervisors meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month and begin at 6:00 pm in the Robert C. Claude, Sr. Board Room at the County Courthouse Complex.
 8. The Board of Supervisors will hold the public hearing and make the final decision to approve or deny the application. The applicant or their representative is required to attend the Board of Supervisors meeting to present the application and answer any questions from Board of Supervisors members.
 9. The applicant will be notified in writing of the Board of Supervisors' decision. If denied, the applicant may appeal the Board's decision to the Circuit Court within thirty days of the decision.
