Scam Alert: Scammers Calling and Impersonating Woodridge Police Officers

This is an audio recording of a voicemail box set up by some scammers impersonating the Woodridge Police Department. The scammers are looking up Woodridge Police officers' names and then calling people and impersonating Woodridge Police officers. The scammers are asking to collect money or gift card information over the phone. They also set up a fake voicemail line to collect the account information. The Woodridge Police Department will never call to request payment over the phone. If you receive a suspicious call from someone claiming to be a Woodridge Police officer, please call our main phone number at 630-719-4740 during regular business hours (M-F, 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.) or 911 anytime.

Give DuPage $ For DuPage

This week is the DuPage Foundation annual fundraiser, #GivingDuPageDays, and there's still time to contribute. The DuPage Foundation helps to lift up 95 local charitable organizations across every nonprofit cause – hunger, disabilities, homelessness, healthcare, mental wellness, women, children, military, veterans and more. All these nonprofit groups benefit from the LARGEST online community fundraiser going on now through today. Please see this website to make a donation .

DuPage Community Arts Festival

DuPage County will host its inaugural Community Arts Festival on May 28 at the DuPage County Fairgrounds. The festival will have three stages with musical acts, along with food trucks and a beer tent providing refreshments. Local community artists will be showcasing and selling their work throughout the festival.

Groups scheduled to perform during the festival include the headline act, Ides of March, and others including the Orbert Davis Quintet, Muriel Anderson, Ralph Covert and Ralph's World, Son Monarcas, the DuPage Symphony Ensembles, the Chicago Jazz Academy, Vital Signs, the Road Show Inc. Show Choir, Elmhurst Symphony Chamber groups, and many more, including a visual performance by artist Lewis Achenbach.

Business Owners: SBDC Live Webinar: Funding - Loans and Alternatives

The live webinar covers basic concepts of funding through loans and other options. The webinar will explain various loan programs, how you can test whether you and your business are eligible, and how for example SBA loans work. You will get an overview of the paperwork required and a brief chapter about alternative funding, including self-funding options.

This live webinar encourages questions from the audience and allows time to answer questions provided through the Q&A box. Please be prepared to share a bit about the kind of business (i.e. retail, e-commerce, consumer services) and your point of business development (i.e. idea formed, market research, early startup, < 1year, existing).

IDNR recommends halt to use of bird feeders, bird baths through May 31 until spread of avian influenza subsides

SPRINGFIELD – The Illinois Department of Natural Resources (IDNR) today issued updated public recommendations regarding wild birds and the EA H5N1 strain of Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI) currently impacting some wild and domestic bird species.

While HPAI has not been detected in songbird species (passerines), IDNR recommends the use of bird feeders and bird baths cease through May 31, or until HPAI infections in the Midwest subside, especially those that waterfowl may visit. During spring, wild birds will have ample food sources while bird feeders are removed.

Flashback Friday: Woodridge time capsule installation at Kagann Plaza in 2009. The Village of Woodridge plans to open the time capsule on August 24, 2059, for the Village's 100th anniversary.
